Roslyn Talent Show Shines Bright!

The recent Roslyn Talent Show was a remarkable evening filled with laughter, applause, and heartfelt school spirit. Supported by HandS and organized by dedicated Roslyn parents, Melissa Grassi and Pasquale Tropea, the event brought families together in celebration of the incredible talent within our school community

Students from across grade levels took to the stage to sing, dance, boxe, tell jokes, and showcase a variety of impressive skills. The gymnasium was filled with proud families, smiling friends, and enthusiastic classmates—each performance receiving an outpouring of support. One young K5 student summed it up best when asked about his favourite act: “EVERYTHING!”

The show was more than just a showcase of talent—it was a testament to the strength of the Roslyn community. “It’s about Roslyn and the amazing school spirit that shone that night,” said Melissa and Pasquale.

The HandS organizing committee and volunteers poured countless hours into planning and running the event, and their efforts paid off. Melissa and Pasquale, along with a small group of behind-the-scenes helpers, created an evening that left a lasting impression on all who attended.

The organizers are already thinking about next year, stating it will “be equally as spectacular!”

A big thank you to Melissa, Pasquale, the volunteers, and of course, the talented students of Roslyn. The Talent Show was a beautiful reminder of what makes our school so special.

Do you have a favourite moment from the show? We’d love to hear it! Email us to share your highlights!

A downloadable link of the talent show will be available soon — stay tuned!
